TRENTON — Annette Labrecque-Evans has gone full circle.

She's enjoyed success as a model — heightened in 1980 when she was crowned Miss World Canada — and was able to work in countries others could only dream of visiting.

During the last decade the Quebec

City native has lived more of a double life, giving birth to three children, her husband, Dr. George Evans, of Trenton, and working as administrator in an office.

She went back to school, graduated from Queen's University with a degree in biology in 1983, and has remained physically fit by windsurfing and instructing aerobics classes. A student of the Trenton Conservatory of Music in piano,
