

Long active in the work of local and provincial horticultural societies, a spade in his hand in his flower beds around his sprawling Cherry Valley property is a familiar pose for Phil, especially at this time of year.

A newsmen for more than 30 years, Phil Dodds continues his interest in writing as a columnist for The Trentonian and The Picton Gazette.