

Kirks, William R

Belleville, Sept 15/71

And The Band Played On

William R. Kirk, a former executive director of the Ontario Association for the Mentally retarded, and after whom the Belleville school for the retarded is named, along with George Botting, local association president, and Harry "Red" Foster, honorary president of the provincial association, help school band members bang out a tune during school assembly.

The Intelligencer, Sept 15, 1971