

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

LEFT: St. Agnes Manor, once located on the corner of Ann and Bridge Streets in Belleville, was torn down in 1973. It was set up as a boarding school for girls in 1903. It stopped operating as a school in 1920 and the building was converted to 21 apartments and rented out to tenants. RIGHT: Comedienne Beatrice Lillie left Belleville for a glamour career on the stage.

Intell Sept. 2106 p. C2

Lillie, Beatrice