

INTELLIGENCER PHOTO BY HENRY BURY

Massachusetts Scouter Tom Jaworski, left, Belleville Mayor George Zegouras, David Bentley and Kim Derry, provincial commissioner for Scouts Canada, cut a cake to mark Bentley's 25 years of service as curator of the Belleville Scout-Guide Museum. Bentley is retiring as curator.

he said.

Jaworski then presented Bentley with citations signed by both the House of Representatives and the State Senate from Massachusetts, congratulating the retired curator for his role in preserving Scouting/Guiding history.

George Zegouras said Belleville "is very fortunate to have people like David Bentley who have made a sacrifice for the betterment of our community."

He presented Bentley with a framed certificate on behalf of the city.

MPP Ernie Parsons also presented him with a framed certificate from the province recognizing "your dedication has made a difference in the lives of our young people."