

Messrs. Denys and Ashley also spoke, being followed by Mr. A. W. Mason, of Toronto, and Chas. Davis, the latter representing the pupils. A poetical tribute "In memory of S. T. Greene" by Mr. Thos. Wills, who modestly disclaims any special favors from the Muses, had been transcribed on the large slate above the platform and was rendered with much effect by Mr. Nurse in pantomime language. From this tribute which, although hastily gotten up, was favorably commented upon, we extract the last verse :

"Each mute in dear Ontario
A parting tear will shed to-day,
And mourn that one they loved so well
Has from their presence passed away."

Here commenced the religious service proper, Rev. Canon Burke officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Bogart, both clergymen wearing cassock and surplice. Rev. Messrs. Daw and Powell were also present. The esteemed pastor of St. Thomas' prefaced the ceremony with words full of deep meaning and practical import. He enjoined upon the students to imitate the virtues of their teacher and friend and to so mould their lives that when their hour should come they might not be found unprepared. The service throughout was very solemn and impressive and was interpreted to the children by Prof. Coleman. This being over, the pupils and all present were permitted to take a last look at the remains.

But no, that look is not the last ;
We yet may meet where seraphs dwell,
Where love no more depletes the past,
Nor breathes that withering word—farewell.

The funeral cortege was then formed, all the larger boys under charge of officers preceding the hearse. The citizens were also largely represented, thus testifying of their regard. The pall-bearers were ; Col. Strong, U. S. Consul ; A. Livingstone, Bursar of the institution ; J. D. McKillop, teacher ; A. W. Mason, Artist, Toronto ; N. McGilivray and J. Balzana, pupils of the institution. Among the chief mourners we notice Howard, Prof. Greene's own son, Mr Jacob Greene, President of the Hartford, Conn., Life Insurance Comp'y, his brother ; Mr. L. Howard, Manager Molson's Bank, Morrisburg, brother of Mrs. Greene, and S. S. Wallbridge, Esq, Barrister, City. The thoughtful act of the deaf mutes of Toronto in sending delegates to the funeral speaks volumes for their intelligence and goodness of heart. These delegates were A. W. Mason, R. Riddell and J. Gates. W. Walton, another deaf mute from Woodstock, was also here.

Among the floral tokens, we observed the emblematic "Anchor" superbly gotten up, rich in roses and lilies, the spontaneous offering of Principal, teachers and officers, and which bore the inscription : "Friendship's tribute."

The affection of the deaf mutes of Toronto also manifested itself in the presentation of a floral wreath of much beauty and fragrance.

A cross of white flowers of exquisite taste and freshness was likewise sent by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart as an expression of deep regret and sympathy.

NOTES.

While the death of Prof. S. T. Greene is felt and regretted by the general public, it has cast a special gloom over the Institution where he is best known, and where he will not soon be forgotten.

At a meeting of the teachers and officers, called by the Principal for the purpose, the following resolution, were proposed and unanimously adopted :

Whereas : It has pleased God in His inscrutable designs to remove from our midst Samuel T. Greene, a teacher in this Institution.

Resolved :

(1) That we bow in christian submission to the will of Providence.

(2) That in the death of our esteemed co-laborer and friend, we have lost, not only a most able teacher and faithful worker, but one whose genial manner, superior intelligence and gentlemanly bearing have won our unfeigned regard and affection.

(3) That our heartfelt sympathy is hereby rendered to his widow and family.

(4) That copies of these resolutions be sent to his family and the local press.

As a mark of respect it was also proposed that the teachers, officers and pupils should, during thirty days, wear a badge of mourning, which was unanimously agreed to.

The last line in the page of our friend's earthly career is written. That his name has been transferred to the Book of Eternal Life is at once our hope and consolation !

The Independent Order of Foresters was represented by Bros. John P. Thomas, N. M. Ostrom, Wm. Johnson, J. H. Simpson, T. J. Spafford, Geo. A. Skinner and Chas. Clapp.

The city clergymen present were Rev. J. W. Burke, M. A., Rev. D. F. Bogart, Rev. S. Daw, Rev. Mr. Powell and Rev. J. M. Hodson, B. A.
