PICTON - Funeral services were held here Monday for former Prince Edward County warden Clinton Green of Salmon Point, who died at Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital last weekend. He was 72.

Green served as county warden in 1953 and in 1957 was the Liberal party's candidate in the federal elections in this riding. He was a member of Athol township council for 10 years, serving as reeve for five years.

He was Athol's representative to the Prince Edward Region Conservation Authority at the time of its organization, more than a decade ago and served as a member of the county's land severance committee.

A past president of the Prince Edward Federation of Agriculture, Green was a lifelong resident of the Salmon Point community. He farmed in Athol for many years but was retired at the time of his death.

Green is survived by his wife, the former Rita Huycke and sons Ronald of Toronto, Glendon of Salmon Point and Larry of Chatham.

An Odd Fellows lodge service was held Sunday night, in memory of Green who had been a member of the organization for 30 years.

Funeral services were held here today with the Reverend Stephen Spurrell of Cherry Valley United Church officiating.
