

Griffin, George H.

Former Intell
mar 12/82
Belleville
Bel - Geog - Co
alderman

George H. Griffin, Belleville alderman in the early 1930s and once active in the city's community work, died recently at Summerside, Prince Edward Island.

Griffin, 87, a former Canadian National Express agent, was a city councillor in 1930-31; was the first president of Belleville Kiwanis Club, and a life member of the Belleville Masonic Lodge 123. As a Bellevillian he was also a member of Bridge Street United Church, and at one time was president of the church's Bay of Quinte Conference Young People's Union.

He lived his retirement years at Summerside, where he died in hospital Feb. 25.

Intelligencer
March 12, 1982