

Receptions Honor Couple On Golden Anniversary

C. March 4th, 1914 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moorcroft of Hazzard's Corners. Miss Florence Moorcroft and Foster M. Gunsolus were united in marriage. Fifty years later they received many friends at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Gunsolus, 55 Highland Avenue, Belleville. The locale was changed but the principals were the same. The bride, Miss Florence Moorcroft, was fifty years old. Her bridesmaid, Mrs. Percy Taylor, and the groomsmen, Mr. Fred Moorcroft, brother of the bride of fifty years, took their places and helped the happy couple greet their many friends.

Messages of congratulations were received from Premier John Robarts, the Rt. Hon. John Diefenbaker, Mr. Rodd Webb, M.P. for Hastings-Frontenac, Mr. Lee Grills and Mr. Elmer Sandercock and from many friends and relatives who were unable to be present for the occasion.

The tea table was centred with a beautiful white wedding cake decorated with touches of gold.

Those pouring tea in the afternoon were Mrs. Alfred Poulter and Mrs. Ray Pierson, a cousin of Mrs. Gunsolus. Mrs. Les. Lennox arranged the dainty sandwiches and cookies and wedding cake while Mrs. Roy Grant and Mrs. George Greatrix served.

In the evening Mrs. Harry M. Davis, Mrs. Agnes Curry, Mrs. Wes. Gray, Mrs. Russell Scott, Mrs. Lee Grills and Mrs. Jack Bush poured. Mrs. Fred Stirland invited the guests to the tea room for the first part of the evening and Mrs. Wilbur Fox for the second half. Mrs. Harold Craig replenished the tea plates served by Dorothy and Lois Moorman, Loreta Fairman, Mrs. Arthur O'Hara, Mrs. Morley Tugnet, Mrs. Jack Ireland, Mrs. Arthur Clare, Mrs. Gordon Anderson and Mrs. Vic White. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Armour Chaplin. Mrs. Albert Stirland was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolus' grandchildren, Barbara - Rae Drew and Cathie Gunsolus and little Darlene Rodgers helped make the guests feel at home. Wee Laurie Rodgers, too young to take part, stayed at the home of her grandparents. Mrs. Meighen Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolus, journeyed from West Hill to greet friends and relatives along with the host and hostess, ing chatting over old times with those who called. Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolus farmed in Madoc Township prior to moving to 307 Foster Avenue, Belleville, some fourteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Meighen Rodgers, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolus received the guests in the afternoon and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gunsolus greeted the guests.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Harry Moorcroft, Mrs. Fred Moorcroft, Mrs. George Moorcroft and Mrs. Stan. Moorcroft. Serving and assisting were Miss Mary Taylor, Miss Bertha Moorcroft, Miss Margaret Moorcroft and Mrs. Ross Moorcroft. Barbara-Ray Gunsolus invited the guests to sign the guest book after greeting the honored couple.

Many pictures were taken of the group to keep fresh the memory of both long to be remembered events.

On Saturday, February 7th at the home of Mrs. Gunsolus brother, Mr. Ray Moorcroft Madoc Township, her two sisters, Alma and Minnie Moorcroft arranged a tea and reception for the many relatives and friends still living in the "golden anniversary couple's" former neighborhood. They spent the afternoon and evening
