

Huggan, Isabel

Former city resident returns as speaker

TRENTON - Former city resident Isabel Huggan will be a guest of the University Women's Club on Thursday, April 12, at 8 p.m., at the Dufferin Centre.

With her first book appearing this spring, a collection of eight interconnected stories called The Elizabeth Stories, Huggan worked as a publishing company copy editor and a teacher of English and theatre in secondary schools. She worked at The Intelligencer as a reporter-photographer from 1974 to 1976, writing a weekly column called All in the Family.

She moved to Ottawa in 1980 and has just completed a children's book about old age, and is working on a new collection of stories.

The public is welcome to the meeting at 8:45 p.m.

The Intelligencer

April 5, 1984