

Trites,
Art

Intell
Dec 15
1984

The supervisor

When Art Trites first became a city employee more than 14 years ago, he was responsible solely for city hall's maintenance. Over the years his "portfolio" as Belleville's building maintenance supervisor has grown to 25 buildings. Trites retires at the end of the month and plans both a skiing vacation and a trip to Mexico. His was a job that may not have garnered many headlines but still was an essential civic post.

(Staff Photo)