

Glen Turner 'hospitable' recipient

Glen Turner has a promising career in the hospitality industry.

The Hotel and Restaurant Management Program student at Loyalist College was named a 1993 recipient of the Canadian Hospitality Foundation Merit Award.

Twenty-eight college students from across the province were so honored by the foundation.

Foundation spokesman Rigzin Dolkar said Turner was selected by Loyalist as the student most likely to make the greatest contribution to the food service and accommodation industries after graduation.

"In winning this award, Glen (Turner) demonstrated character, leadership qualities, ability to get along with others and professional promise," Dolkar said.

For winning the foundation's merit award, Turner will receive $250.

Glen Turner