Five generations

Bel - City
(collection)

It's not all that often five generations of any one family gather to celebrate the birthday of the family matriarch. Sunday, Grace VanDusen, seated, held court as four generations of her descendants gathered to celebrate her 80th birthday. On her lap is great-great granddaughter, Elisha Jones, 3; and from left: daughter, Viola Liddle; great granddaughter Tammy Jones; granddaughter Valerie Whiteman and VanDusen's great-great grandson, Justin Jones, eight months.
