MAJOR VAN WART

Major retires from Forces

Long-time Belleville resident, Maj. Ray Van Wart is retiring from the Canadian Forces after 37 years of service—his last posting being at CFB Trenton.

He joined the Royal Canadian Air Force at then-6RD Trenton in 1949 and served at military bases in Canada and overseas—his latest appointment being back at Trenton as senior staff officer of accounts and financing at Training Systems Headquarters.

He and his wife, Dorothy Ellen (Rushnell), of Belleville, have two children, Mark 29, and Matthew, 17.

The Van Warts will remain in Belleville during their retirement years.
