

Vaughan, Lorne Edward

Lorne Edward Vaughan

L.C. Vaughan dead at 78

Intell Feb 10/79 BELLEVILLE - BIOGRAPHY "V"

Funeral for a former, long-time city businessman, Lorne Edward Vaughan, 78, will be conducted Monday from the Grant Funeral Home to Christ Church. Mr. Vaughan died Friday following a brief illness at Belleville General Hospital.

A city resident since 1939, Mr. Vaughan was the manager of Keyes Supply Co. Ltd. until the business was assumed by the family and became, Vaughan Automotive and Appliances Ltd. He resided at 217 Bridge St. East, Apt. 207.

Born in Richmond, Ont., Mr. Vaughan was the son of the late Charles and Mary Vaughan and the husband of the former Helen Rose Gorman of Richmond.

Mr. Vaughan was a former member of Christ Church and prior to his death, St. Margaret's-on-the-Hill. He was also a life member of Delhousie Lodge, Ottawa; life member, Eureka Blue Lodge and Moira Chapter; Past First Principal King Baldwin Preceptory; Past Grand Superintendent, Emmas Temple, Hamilton; a member of the Red Cross of Constantine; Past Preceptor Sovereign Great Priory of Canada; member of Rameses Temple, Toronto and the Belleville Shrine Club; and a life delegate and honorary member of Grand Chapter of Maine, U.S.

The Eureka Masonic Lodge 283 will hold a memorial service Sunday 7 p.m.

Mr. Vaughan is survived by children, William E. Vaughan, Belleville; Barbara Spafford, Belleville; Mrs. T.R. (Norma) Canden, Peterborough; Dr. Robert L. Vaughan, and C. Gordon Vaughan, both of Belleville. He is also survived by grandchildren, Gord and Kathy Spafford, Belleville; Steve, Peter, Sally and Jeff Canden of Peterborough; Teri Lee, Lisa, Bradley and Tania Vaughan of Belleville. Also surviving are daughters-in-law, Lois and Joan.

He is survived by one brother, Fred Vaughan of Woodbury, N.J. He was predeceased by three brothers, Rev. Alfred Vaughan, Herb Vaughan, Andrew Vaughan; and three sisters, Mrs. Anna Beardsley, Mrs. Mildred Beardsley and Mrs. Eva Bennett.

The funeral will be conducted by Canon R.B. De Blois Wright assisted by Rev. Virgil F. Earle at 11 a.m. Monday.

DEATHS

Intelligencer
February 10, 1979