Jaques dies at 63

The city's police service said goodbye Monday to a veteran officer who gave more than 30 years to law enforcement in Belleville.

Funeral was held at John R. Bush Funeral Home for 63-year-old Glenn Jaques, who died Friday at Kingston General Hospital.

A member of the city's police department from 1957 until he retired in May, 1987, Jaques rose from the rank of constable to detective.

After he retired the Victoria Avenue man continued his contact with law enforcement, working as a court officer at Ontario Court (General Division) on Pinnacle Street.

He is survived by his wife Myrtle, son Danny and his wife Laura of Stirling, and sons Tim and his wife Kim and Marty, all of Belleville and brother Russell Jaques of Campbellford.
