

Mac Donald, Clinton

Belleville - Biog.

Intel - Aug 1, 1970

Tax Collector Joins Taxpayers

Staff member at the Income Tax Office in Belleville for 26 years Clinton MacDonald was honored Friday by fellow employees with a brief retirement party and presentation.

Staff members at the Belleville Taxation Office presented Mr. MacDonald with a slide projector. Congratulations on retirement were expressed by president Robert Keyes and chief assessor G. Foxall.

After working in insurance for about a dozen years, Mr. MacDonald joined the local income tax office in January, 1944, progressing rapidly to head. Later he took charge of the immediate assessing program and was for several years in charge of the temporary office in Peterborough.

Married with a family of two, a son Harold in Ottawa, and a daughter Elaine, Mr. MacDonald served six years on the office credit union credit committee and was a member of the staff association and public service alliance.

In private life he is a supporter of the Canadian Concert Association; the Quinte branch of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society of which he is a member of the board of directors, the Quinte Naturalist Society and the Belleville Camera Club. He is an elder of Bridge Street United Church and has served on the Board of Stewards.

The Intelligencer, Aug. 1st, 1970