

Maddox, William

Organ recital

*Intell
Oct 18 1986*

William Maddox, organist and master of the choirs of Bridge Street Church will present a recital in the church at 8 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 26. Maddox, a graduate of the performance program at Queen's University School of Music, was recently named a Fellow of Trinity College, London, England, after passing rigorous performance criteria. He also sits on the national executive of the Royal College of Church Organists. The Oct. 26 program will include music by Guilmant, Vierne, Dupre, MacMillan, Weaver and Durufle. Donations received at the recital will go toward the organ fund in preparation for some major renovations to the huge instrument. All are welcome.

Bel - Burg - M

*Intelligence
October 18, 1986*