

Mason, Larmer J.

LARMER J. MASON

Pressman dies at 85

Funeral was held today for Larmer J. Mason, a former employee of The Intelligencer who died at age 85 June 2.

Mr. Mason, formerly of 127 West Moira St., was a resident of the Quinte Beach Nursing Home in Deseronto.

Mr. Mason began his career as a pressman in 1913 with the Daily Ontario where he worked for several years before leaving to work at the Chatham newspaper. He returned to Belleville after a few years when The Ontario and The Intelligencer amalgamated and worked as a pressman until his retirement in 1970.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason, Mr. Mason was predeceased by wife Helen Gordinier and daughter Aileen Mason.

He is survived by sister Mrs. Ferol MacDonald of RR 4 Belleville and several nieces and nephews.

Service was officiated by Rev. Edward S. Colwell with burial following in the Belleville Cemetery.

Intelligencer
June 4, 1982