

Blair, David

Blair gets remanded

After May 27/83

TORONTO - Former Belleville lawyer David Blair has been remanded out of custody in provincial court here until Nov. 23 when he is to appear for trial on charges of fraud totalling $100,000 and involving several Toronto trust companies.

Blair, sentenced to five years in prison in Florida for trafficking cocaine and possession of marijuana last year, has been extradited from the United States and is living in Ottawa pending the outcome of his trial on the fraud charges.

Toronto police fraud squad Sgt. Ross Wilson said today Blair will serve his U.S.-imposed prison sentence in Canada at the conclusion of the trial in November.

*Intelligencer
May 27, 1983*