

Booth, Howard

Bel - C. 009 - B
Funeral today for businessman

Intell May 12/86
A private funeral service was to be held today for Howard Booth, 66, a long-time Belleville businessman who died suddenly Saturday at Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston.

For nearly three decades Mr. Booth was a leading retailer of television and radio sets in the city.

He started the business in 1945 and his late brothers, Gordon and George, were also in the business for some time. Mr. Booth went out of the business operation in 1977.

He is immediately survived by his wife, Mary, and son John, of Chicago, Ill.

The service was set for the John R. Bush Funeral Home.

*Intelligencer
May 12, 1986*