

Ex-Mayor Is Buried

INTEL Dec 1/70
The funeral of former mayor John G. Both was held yesterday.

The service at the John R. Bush Funeral Home was conducted by Dr. H. M. Davis and interment was in Northbrook cemetery.

Mr. Both, 68, who died Nov. 26, was mayor of Belleville in 1954 and 1955.

Honorary bearers at his funeral were all Bellevillians with records of public service in local government. They were Ald. Arthur Keegan and former members of council Bruce Smith, Douglas Moxam, Jack Allin, Bryson Reid and Frank Follwell.

Active bearers were Alec Pierson, Dave Stevenson, Carl Whittemore, Ralph Plumpton, Monty Barlow and Kel Kincaid.

Mr. Both was a charter member of the Masonic Temple Lodge 666 and a memorial service was held by fellow lodge members Sunday at the funeral home. The service was directed by H. McConnell, B. Gill, S. Smith, B. Humphries, H. Birkenshaw, A. Watkin, H. Bankier and R. Buskard.

The Intelligencer
Dec 1st, 1970