Mable Boyce marks 100th birthday

Mrs. Mable F. (Mather) Boyce celebrated her 100th birthday on Aug. 7 at her home in Cannifton, where she has lived for the past 79 years.

Her children and their families, along with other relatives, were present for the occasion. She has two children, Mrs. Earl (Ida) Yateman and Roy Boyce, seven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Also present were friends from the village.

Mrs. Boyce is enjoying reasonably good health and still takes an active interest in her home and community.

Greetings were received from: Lieutenant Governor Lincoln Alexander, Queen Elizabeth, Governor General Jeanne Sauve, Prime Minister Brian Mulroney, Opposition Leader John Turner, Premier David Peterson, Lyle Vanclief, MP for Prince Edward-Hastings, and Keith MacDonald, MPP for Prince Edward Lennox.

Mrs. Boyce also received many cards of congratulations from relatives and friends.
