

Ald. J. Bradford Transferred To Toronto Branch

July 14, 1954

Alderman Jack Bradford, manager of the Belleville branch of the Industrial Acceptance Corp. and Niagara Finance Co. Ltd., has been named manager of the West Toronto Branch of the Industrial Acceptance Corp. His new duties will commence August 23rd.

Mr. Bradford who joined I.A.C. in Kingston in May, 1947, came to Belleville as manager in 1950 serving in the Victoria, B.C., branch from Nov. of 1947. When he came here the Belleville branch had a staff of five which has grown to a present staff of 25.

Mr. Bradford, born in Belleville in 1919, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bradford, was educated at Queen Mary school and the Belleville Collegiate. He joined the Royal Canadian Navy in 1941 as an able seaman, served five years on corvettes, and received his discharge as a lieutenant in 1946.

Since returning to Belleville in 1950 Mr. Bradford has taken a keen interest in a number of civic projects. He was elected to the city council as an alderman in 1953 and at present is chairman of the welfare committee and a member of the executive and finance committee.

He is on the board of governors of the Belleville General Hospital, and chairman of the hospital's public relations committee; on the executive of the Children's Aid Society, a director of the Sales and Ad Club, a member of the Belleville Kiwanis Club, the Bay of Quinte Golf and Country Club and the Belleville Club.

He married Kay Moher of Belleville in 1952.
