If there's such a thing as a happy businessman in Belleville it's Bob Brearley.

Brearley's cheerfulness in these times of recession, stems not so much from the business climate, but from being back in his home town after an absence of about 30 years in Toronto and Winnipeg.

After graduating from BCI in the 1950s, he took business administration at Ryerson. In recent months he had the opportunity to transfer back to Belleville where he is now mortgage specialist with the Hewmac Mortgage Centre in Century Place working out of the offices of McDougall and Yeates in the northeast corner.

"I'm sure glad to be out of Toronto and it's great to be home," said Brearley.
