

BROWN, John E.

JOHN N. BROWN

Bancroft Man On EODC

Intell. Dec. 31, 73

BANCROFT — A prominent Hastings County businessman has been appointed a director of one of Ontario's three development corporations.

The appointment of John N. Brown, Bancroft lumber company president and a former county warden, to the Eastern Ontario Development Corporation (EODC) was announced by Premier William Davis.

The three bodies — which also include the Ontario Development Corporation and the Northern Ontario Development Corporation — provide financial and advisory services to business and industry.

Mr. Brown has served a number of terms as reeve of Bancroft and is well known throughout the county. He was warden of Hastings County council when it took the move to build a new county administration centre on the site of the first courthouse.

He is one of 13 members on the EODC. Chairman is Gerald L. Ducharme, Ottawa businessman. Norman Carson, a Brockville general contractor, is vice-chairman.

Dec. 31/73 Intell