

Fred Maund New President Curling Club

President of the Belleville Quinte Curling Club for the incoming year is Fred Maund, who is proprietor of Maund's Service, "Floor Finishing Specialists," and distributors of maintenance supplies and equipment at a recent meeting of the directors, Mr. Maund was the unanimous choice of the members.

A native of North Bay, Fred spent four years in the RCAF and, on his discharge in 1945, he started his business operation. Fred curls in the winter and gardens in the summer. He and his wife, Wyn, live at 8 Greenlawn Avenue. His two children, Jim and Kathie are in Toronto.

The new president, and the following board of directors for 1966-67, have already had several meetings and meet monthly all summer, so that by November, when curling commences, the spade work is all done.

Chairmanships on the board of directors for next season are: president — Fred Maund; vice-president — Bill Riley; secretary-treasurer — Cliff Neill; chairman building property and house — Bill Gault; chairman canteen — Bill Spinelli; chairman men's curling — Neville Burroughes; curling mixed curling — Bill McPherson; chairman honspiels — Al Chatland; chairman ice — Jack Olaveson; chairman entertainment and publicity — Fred Deacon; rep. of men's Bay of Quinte — Ken Pinder.

The Intelligencer
June 28, 1966