

McCann, Kim

Kim McCann new president of Chamber

Belleville Dec. 23/01 p. 2
The Belleville and District Chamber of Commerce has a new president.

Kim McCann was elected president for 2002, succeeding Dan Atkinson of Welch & Company who will remain on the board as past president.

McCann is the vice-president of Canadian service delivery for Stream International and previously worked several years for Bell Canada. She has been a director with the chamber of commerce since 1997.

Also elected to the executive of the chamber board were Liz Knuude, of BMO Nesbitt Burns, as first vice president; Bob Doyle, of McDonald's Restaurant, as second vice president; Lyn Knell, of Green Home Centre, as vice president of finance; Jeff Snider of Wilkinson & Company, as treasurer.

KIM
McCANN

Steve Hyndman of the city of Belleville was re-appointed associate director.

Elected to the board for the first time were Bill McGuire of Quinte Broadcasting, Constance Pitirri of Kelly Services and Brenda Smith of Bell Canada.

McCann and the new board of directors will take their oath of office from Belleville Mayor George Zegouras at the 137th annual dinner meeting scheduled for Jan. 25.

The Belleville and District Chamber of Commerce has been the city's business organization since 1864 and it currently has 600 member-businesses.

Intelligencer - Dec. 23/01 p. 2