

McCutcheon, Dr. William C.

Memorial service for retired dentist

A memorial service for widely-known Belleville dentist Dr. William C. McCutcheon will be held at 7:30 p.m. this evening in the O'Brien-Steele-Luscombe-Vanclief Funeral Home, with Rev. Maurice McLeod officiating.

Dr. McCutcheon died at his residence, 2 Diamond Cr., on Wednesday.

He was widely known in the Belleville area having practised dentistry here for 47 years before retiring about five years ago. Previously, he served in the dental corps overseas during the Second World War.

Born in Ottawa, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McCutcheon.

Surviving besides his wife, the former Kathlyn Docter Carleton, are two daughters, Mrs. Dan (Nancy Jane) Saunders, New Orleans and Mrs. David (Peggy Ann) Loder, Belleville. Both were noted figure skaters for many years, including serving five years with the Ice Follies. Also surviving are three grandchildren and one brother, Dr. Donald McCutcheon, Coldwater, Ont.

Cremation will follow the memorial service.
