Happy 100th birthday

Mary McDermott will become 100 years old today. Her family gathered recently at Belleville General Hospital, where she is a patient, to celebrate her birthday. Her five sons and three daughters, their husbands and wives, were all present, as well as some of her 43 grandchildren and 48 great grandchildren. Lyle Vanclief, MP for Prince Edward-

Hastings, presented the plaque from the federal government, and a scroll from the Government of Ontario on behalf of Hugh O'Neil, MPP.
