ROBIN McELARY-DOWNER

Belleville woman transferred by OPP

Call Ontario Provincial Police and ask for Corporal McElary these days and you're in for a question regarding "which one?"

Cpl. Robin Dale McElary-Downer, daughter of Belleville OPP Cpl. Laurie McElary, was recently given a promotion from the rank of constable and transferred out of the physical surveillance unit of OPP Toronto's technical support branch.

With her promotion, McElary-Downer will see duty with OPP General Headquarters anti-rackets branch.

Daughter of Belleville OPP's McElary and Beverley G. Atkins, of RR 4 Belleville, she is a graduate of Centennial Secondary School and Loyalist College's law and security course.

She is married to Const. David Downer, Peel Regional Police canine handler.
