

McGlashon, David James Jr.

Intel May 27/00
p4

Time Capsule

In the picture at left, we see David James McGlashon Jr. of Belleville in his uniform as a boy bugler for the 15th Argyle Light Infantry at about 13-years of age. In the picture at right we see him in his uniform to serve. A machine gunner, he went overseas with the 155th battalion and was transferred to the 47th battalion with which he served at the front at the time of his death. He was killed August 11, 1917 in France.

Intelligencer, May 27/00 - pg 4