Photographer Crombie McNeill's photographic studio has opened at 30 Bridge St. E.

McNeill has been a photographer for more than 30 years and has covered the Vietnam War, Olympics and Pan Am games, Formula One auto racing, has worked on industrial and commercial projects for large corporations, and has been involved in three modelling agencies with his wife Sue.

He came to Belleville from Toronto 14 months ago and is now concentrating on location and portrait photography, weddings and industrial/commercial. He also produces a weekly Quinte Personalities photo for use in The Sunday Intelligencer.

"I'm really a 'people' photographer," says McNeill. He and his wife, who is a makeup artist, also plan to "network" with local models (adults and youths) and promote them in Toronto and Montreal. His studio hours are Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. He is also available evenings and weekends. Call 962-1529.
