Dagmar Meeks dies after serious fall

*Steel p. 1
May 16/76*

Dagmar Meeks, wife of veteran city Coun. Stu Meeks, died Wednesday at Kingston General Hospital.

She was 60.

Sources close to the family said Mrs. Meeks fell in her home Monday night, suffering suspected broken bones in her face.

She was examined at Belleville General Hospital and released later that night, but her husband was reported to have taken her back to hospital Tuesday, where she was admitted and later transferred to Kingston General Hospital where she died.

An autopsy was to be performed today to determine a cause of death.

The daughter of Nora Wrightson, of Belleville, and the late Rev. Edwin Wrightson, Mrs. Meeks is survived by daughter Mrs. Steven (Ginger) White, and sons, Shane and Shawn Meeks, of Belleville. Also surviving her are grandchildren Kyle, Gregory, Aaron and Alina.

Visitation at the John R. Bush Funeral Home will be Sunday, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Monday from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

A funeral service will be held in the funeral home chapel Tuesday, May 21, at 2:30 p.m. followed by burial in Belleville Cemetery.
