Warden Dies

BLOOMFIELD — A former warden of Prince Edward and past reeve of Bloomfield village Arthur Moore, 72, died suddenly Monday following a heart attack.

Mr. Moore owned and operated Moore's Grocery in Bloomfield village for a number of years but retired in December, 1974.

He was chairman of the village church board, a past president of the Picton Rotary Club and past chairman of the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital Board.

A prominent resident of Bloomfield, Mr. Moore was honored shortly after his retirement in 1974 at a community dinner sponsored by the village.

He is survived by his wife, Edith Neilson, daughters, Betty (Mrs. J. J. McGrath) Victoria, British Columbia and Jean (Mrs. Roger Strawbridge), Lahr, Germany and a son Jack of Bloomfield.

Funeral services will be held Thursday April 17 from the Whattam funeral home with Reverend Nathan Bowering and Reverend N. Truax officiating.

Prince Edward Lodge No. 18 A.F. and A.M. will hold a service Wednesday night.

Interment will be in Universalist Cemetery, Bloomfield.
