

Morton, Lily

Family and friends gather for birthday

Intell June 5/80

Close to 150 relatives and friends of Lily Morton attended an open house on May 31 at St. Andrew's Parish Hall, when Mrs. Morton celebrated her 95th birthday.

The event was arranged by her daughters Mrs. Douglas (Jean) Black and Mrs. John (Isobel) Cochrane with the help of St. Andrew's ACW.

Mrs. Morton was born Lily Maude Wallbridge on June 1, 1885 on Huff's Island, where she lived until her marriage to Fred Morton of Melville, Ont., in November, 1916. In 1951, they retired and moved to Wellington. Mrs. Morton has two surviving children, two surviving grandchildren, and three great grandchildren.

She has always lived an active life, and was one of the original members of Mountain View Institute. After her marriage, Mrs. Morton took an active part in church work and St. Andrew's Church, both at Christ Church, Hillier, Wellington.
