

Mount Farley

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER

Trenton
High Commissioner
for the Province

Farley Mowat Assigned to Write Regt's. History

Author of one of Britain's "best sellers", Farley (Squib) Mowat, Palgrave, Ont., has been assigned to write the history of the famous Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment.

Mr. Mowat was given the assignment at a well attended meeting of the regimental association held in the Church St. Armouries on Sunday afternoon.

Son of the well known Major Angus Mowat, an original "Hasty Pee", and now chief inspector of libraries, Ottawa. Mr. Mowat expects to have the history completed by the end of 1953. He will start work on it the first of the year.

He will spend three months in England, and in Italy, Sicily and other war theatres where the regiment fought, doing research and background work.

Major Bill Graydon, M.C., association president, was in the chair. Present were Lieut.-Col. A. A. Kennedy, D.S.O., Owen Sound; Lieut. Col. B. C. Donnan, Belleville, and W. A. Davern, Wellington; Majors Newell Broad, Madoc; Ted Nayler, Madoc; Cliff Broad, Bancroft; Stan Walker, Stan. Ketcheson, Trenton; Captain Robert Scott, association secretary-treasurer, and many others.

Named to Committee

s e y
n
s, e x
-
t
-
s
-
n
h
-
k
r
e s