Miss A. Mulligan Bid Farewell By Tax Staff

still May 8/62
Recently the members of the staff of the Belleville District Taxation office gathered to bid farewell to a very popular staff member who was retiring after twenty-one years of service. The retiring member was Miss Anne Mulligan a lifelong resident of the Picton and Belleville district.

Anne, as she was known to all, was educated at Picton Collegiate and was a graduate of the Ontario Business College. In her early career in business life she was employed as an accountant by F. C. Lee, a former Massey-Harris dealer. She was later cashier and accountant at National Grocers in Belleville and still later accountant at Stephens-Adamson Mfg. Co. Ltd., Anne joined the Federal Civil Service in December, 1941 commencing as a cashier and then was promoted to the Assessing Branch where she held many responsible positions.

Several retired members of the staff dropped in for the occasion. They included A. H. Ketcheson, Cliff Weston, Alf Miller and former director, Mr. H. A. Parker.

Anne was presented with a beautiful sterling silver dresser set and that evening she was feted at a dinner by the ladies of the staff and given a lovely brown leather hand bag.

Anne is a devoted Roman Catholic and is going to reside in Estevan, Sask., with her brother the Rev. Father Mulligan.

The entire staff join to wish Anne many years of happy retirement.
