

Nagy, Gloria

Gloria Nagy of Foxboro Named Miss Belleville So-ed

THE ONTARIO INTELLIGENCER, Tuesday, May 4, 1965

A 19-year-old Bell Telephone office worker will represent this city as Miss Belleville So-Ed at the National So-Ed Queen competition to be held at Geneva Park late this month.

Miss Gloria Nagy of Foxboro won the honor Friday evening over five other contestants in the title competition held at the local YMCA. Judges for the event were Graham Geldart, Mildred Gray and Don McKinnon.

Miss Belleville So-Ed will enjoy an all-expense paid weekend at the YMCA Geneva Park on Lake Couchiching on May 22-23-24 where she will compete for the national So-Ed Queen honor. The national contest will be held in conjunction with the National So-Ed Queen conference to be attended by nine local members.

Ten Brockville So-Ed club members attended last night's contest which saw CJBQ's Dave Charles as master of ceremonies.

Janet McLean, last year's national So-Ed Queen was present to crown the new Miss Belleville So-Ed.

Gloria Nagy of Foxboro, (left), crowned Miss Belleville So-Ed Friday evening, with last year's winner Janet McLean.