

Nind, Elizabeth

Intell June 10/85

Special gift

Elizabeth Nind's special gift from the Queen Mother, sent to her after she wrote a poem about the death of King George and sent it to the Queen Mother, is a goblet embossed with the Prince of Wales private emblem. She also has a framed copy of the letter sent with the goblet from the Queen Mother's lady-in-waiting. She's sending the goblet to her daughter and son-in-law in Vancouver. It was on display at the Wellington Museum for several years where Mrs. Nind was curator.

(Staff Photo)

The Intelligencer, June 1985