Paddon gets honour

Retired high school teacher Paul Paddon, at one time the top college football player in Canada, will have the Quinte Secondary School athletic field named in his honour.

The salute will officially be bestowed during Quinte's 50th reunion June 4, 5, and 6. Hastings and Prince Edward District School Board trustees approved the move at their monthly meeting Monday.

Paddon was named the country's top footballer while attending the University of Ottawa in 1970. He decided to pursue a career in the classroom rather than on the gridiron and was at Quinte for 29 years as a teacher and coach before retiring in 2001.

He was inducted into the Belleville Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.
