Trenton Businessman Dies in Hospital at 74

TRENTON — A leading member of the Quinte district business community, E. Morton Parker died in hospital on Wednesday.

President of Morton Parker Ltd., a leading Ontario silverware manufacturer, Mr. Parker died in Trenton Memorial Hospital following a brief illness. He was in his 75th year. He was predeceased last year by his wife, Katherine Parker.

His association with the craft in which he concentrated his enterprise began early in life in his native England. It started in 1911 when he joined the silverware company of Pringle and Sons.

As a young man he came to Canada and joined the Trenton operation of Benedict-Proctor Manufacturing Co. Ltd., serving as its general manager for 23 years.

In 1945 he launched the business operations of Morton Parker Ltd., with which he was to establish his prominence in district commerce.

In community affairs he was known as a generous donor when called upon to support worthy causes.

Mr. Parker was a member of the Trenton Rotary Club and the Belleville Club.

He is survived by his son, E. M. (Ted) Parker, Jr., and three grandchildren: James, Katherine and John.

Funeral service will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. in St. George's Anglican Church, prior to cremation at Necropolis Crematorium in Toronto.

Honorary bearers will be Dr. Gerald A. Morton, Kenneth J. Couch, William House, Sr., Frederick C. Rogers, Jack Yanover, Courtland Miller and Wilfred Laporte.

Bearers will be Myles Morton, J. D. Templeman, Wayne Simmons, John Saylor, Norman Armstrong and Andrew (Bud) Little.
