

The Robert Cutter Sr. Family

Mr. Robert Cutter was born in England. He came to Canada in a sailing vessel and settled in Aldershot around 80 years ago. He married Martha Smith of Waterdown.

He was manager of a brick yard which was located behind the Aldershot station. He burnt the bricks for the school which is now the Black Horse Inn. He gave Mr. Walter Horne his first job. He bought land from Mr. Fonger and built a house 62 years ago, which he replaced by the present place 54 years ago, when he went into market gardening. Mrs. Cutter did dressmaking for Mrs. Rodderick who lived at the Rodderick Hotel which building stood until a few years ago when it was torn down to make room for the new highway .

Mr. & Mrs Cutter had five daughters and two sons.

Byron, the only one in Aldershot, Warren who was killed at the Dardenelles in 1916, and May, Laura, Maud, Ethel and Edith.

Byron and his family who are all married still live in Aldershot and carry on the market gardening.
