William had one son by his first marriage, Oscar, who lives in the home on Eagle Drive. The farm has been sold and many homes now occupy the site. William raised beagle hounds and won many ribbons and fame at various meets; the following is copied from "Gleanings from the Gazette of October 23, 1935":

" A young derby beagle hound, owned by William Filman, Aldershot, is setting something of a record for winning judges favor this year. The dog, Yankee Leader, was first in the 15-inch A.A. two-hour hare stake, also first on bench at the Central Beagle Club, and first in the 15-inch derby in the Hamilton field trials this month."

About 1928, George Filman became interested in Real Estate and opened and developed several surveys in Aldershot and vicinity; among them, the Hidden Valley Park area, and the Scheer farm and Griner place.
