

How you going to keep 'em down on the farm, now that the family has a boat? Mr. Roy Smale, a fruit farmer in the Aldershot district, and his sons, Alan and John, with Mrs. Smale, who teaches in an Aldershot school, arrive in their boat for the first family picnic held this summer by the new Aldershot Boat Club. The family dub the craft "Mama's Mink."

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY TURNS SOD — Young and old members of East Plains United Church, Aldershot, show their approval as David Sovereign, oldest member of the congregation, officiates at the sod turning ceremony for an addition to the church. Work on the extensive building program, recently begun, is progressing rapidly.
