

has also been following the history making events of the community and hopes within a few years to see that these will be looked back on with great interest.

In all, the committee has had a busy and successful year.

Submitted by
C. L. Crouchley, Convener of Historical Research