

As the Convenor of Historical Research for the Aldershot Branch
I am happy to report the following

The 1954 & 1958 programme has been very informative & most interesting at the Sept. meeting the roll call was answered by an incident that happened at School proved very educational & interesting.

At the November meeting Mrs Brown the district Historical convenor gave an inspiring talk on Interesting Landmarks in Ontario & stressed that there are as many historical points in Canada as in the European countries & we should try & visit Canada first

The Convenor of Aldershot gave a talk on the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa & spoke of the Book of Remembrance

The Roll call was answered by Lost Land marks which was very interesting to hear of the things gone by.
Several people have borrowed the book & said it was worth reading & care should be taken to preserve it.
New items have been added.

Respectfully submitted,

C. L. Crouchley.
