

SUCCESSFUL BANQUET — The first father and son banquet of the 1st Aldershot Scouts and Cubs, was held last night in the gymnasium of West Plains United Church, Aldershot, with a large crowd present. One of the features of the evening was the presentation of colours to the Cubs. Pictured above in this interesting ceremony are, left to right: Cubs Fred Payne, David Mannar; Jack Gibson, chairman of the group committee; Cubs Bob Couture and David Ballantine; Morley Maddison, Cub leader, and Robert Todd, district commissioner who presented the flag on behalf of the group committee.

WELCOME . . . Scoutmaster Don Ford welcomes seven new Scouts to the 3rd Aldershot Scout Troop. The new recruits joined the troop at a passing up ceremony from the 3rd Aldershot Cub Pack held at St. Matthew's Church last week. Being welcomed into the troupe are, from left, Ralph Dickie, Bill Magee, Marvin Shantz, Barry Brooks, Robert Cole, Ronnie Graham and Bob Irish.

LEADER AND SCOUTS TO ATTEND 8th WORLD JAMBOREE

Right to left standing: Cubmaster of 1st Aldershot Cubs, Jack Lemon; Queen's Scout, David Ballyntyne of 1st Aldershot Troop.
 Right to left seated: Queen's Scout, Bob Scott of 1st Aldershot Troop; Scout Bob Couture of 1st Aldershot Troop; Scout Andy McQuarrie of 1st Aldershot Troop.
 Inset: Queen's Scout Jack Chunley of 2nd Aldershot Troop.