Diamond Anniversary

Mrs. H. W. Read (left), and Mrs. Henry Klodt, charter members of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Matthew's Anglican Church, Burlington, leave the church after the recent Sunday services celebrating the 60th anniversary of the auxiliary. In memory of former members, the auxiliary plans to place a window in the sanctuary.
