

having had 30 years' experience there, after the war was over.

Mr. Ross Peart recalled some of the oyster parties and garden suppers held by the congregation and a story of the 1907 fire.

A hymn sing was led by Mr. G. Laidlaw and refreshments were served by the women of East Plains.

The crowded morning anniversary services featured the intermediate choir under the direction of Mrs. D. Erskine at 9.30 and the senior choir led by Henry Roper at 11 a.m. Rev. E. A. Chester gave the sermon at both services.

Flowers throughout the church were arranged by Mrs. J. Lucas and Mrs. D. Thomas.

SERVICES TO CELEBRATE the 120th anniversary of East Plains United Church were held last Sunday, with four former ministers of the congregation speaking of their earlier ministry days in the church. Looking at a few prized relics of the church are left to right: E. A. Chester, S. B. Stoker, present minister E. W. Shaw, J. T. Heslop and H. W. Outerbridge.